PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY

I am aware of my physical condition and that my participation in club activities may possibly result in the injury of myself and others. I assume the risks involved in such participation and do hereby release the University of Texas Sailing Club, and their members and officers of any and all responsibility and liability in cases of any and all personal injury sustained by me, and of the damage to property and others caused by me while participating in any or all activities of the University of Texas Sailing Club. Such participation will include practice, club functions, parties, competitions, and travel to and from all club activities. I am also aware that the pilot of the boat is liable for all damages, including personal. For damages to the University of Texas Sailing Club equipment, the person is only liable to the extent of helping repair the equipment, so long as the club's rules were not violated. If an unfortunate accident occurs with boat not owned by the University of Texas Sailing Club, the skipper is fully liable for the other boat, if deemed in negligence.
